August 2015

From our President:

This year has seen a lot of change in Shorewood. That includes physical changes to our shared community assets. That includes changes in home ownership as we see new neighbors arrive and bid others farewell. It includes changes in how we handle our finances and changes in various rules and regulations affecting us all.

Your Board of Directors hopes such changes make life in Shorewood that much more pleasant for everyone.

Please come to the Annual Meeting this Saturday at 10 a.m. Michigan time to learn

When the storm clouds come

It happens over the lake once in a while, as the dark creeps over from Chicago. And at times, it storms, but often turns toward Milwaukee or South Bend!

Thankfully, though, the dark skies are not a type of the joy and camaraderie among people here in Shorewood. You bring joy and love and a spirit of teamwork here. You care about neighbors, share room on smaller beaches, drive 15 mph and under because of each other, and support annual meetings when you can!

We are all grateful for sunny skies in our community life!

Summerfest!

Thanks to many who did more about these changes and provide your feedback.

Shorewood is a wonderful place to live -- let's keep it that way!

Mike Johnson

Coming Up...

Dessert, wine, and nibbles

Call it that or call it friendship and intros, but it is Sunday, September 6, 7:00 p.m., on the beautiful South Beach Deck. We all are invited!

Golf, fun, and maybe birdies

You do not have to be great at golf to enjoy this Saturday, September 26 event at Pebblewood in Bridgman. Sign up in the Community House this weekend or at the Annual Meeting.

so much so carefully to make the two days so much joy! Volunteers led many races and games and baked fine cakes and did the sale and painted faces and sold Shorewood shirts and just plain enjoyed each other! And many local businesses contributed excellent prizes! Thank you all!

*Next Summerfest,
August 6-7, 2016!*

Annual Meeting, 9:30 a.m. convening at HCC

That's 9:30 a.m. for coffee and things many of you have baked, and that's Harbert Community Church, just a mile from the banks on Three Oaks Road.

Bring your Annual Meeting packet and prepare for the new budget plus brief reports from all of the committee chairs and Shorewood officers (see list below). There is still room for baked goods to be brought by 9:25 a.m., when the pictures from the last Shorewood year will be starting.

Bring any questions or suggestions, also.
